Robbie Treat Receives CPA License and Promotion

Rogers, AR — The local accounting and wealth management firm of Beall Barclay is pleased to announce that Robbie Treat has recently obtained her Arkansas license as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and has been promoted to senior accountant.

“We are extremely proud of Robbie for her accomplishment, which is an important step in her career,” says Randy Philpot, CPA and Managing Partner of Beall Barclay. “Robbie is an integral part of our team and I am confident she will effectively use her CPA designation to grow as a professional in her new position with the firm.”

Treat joined Beall Barclay in 2002. As a senior accountant, she specializes in audits of nonprofit organizations, homeowner associations and low income housing projects. In addition to her client responsibilities, she supervises staff accountants while developing quality client relationships.

Treat is a graduate of the University of Arkansas, where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration in 1999. Her professional memberships include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA). Treat is also a member of the Alpha Kappa Psi Business Fraternity’s alumni association. She currently resides in Centerton, Arkansas with her husband and children.

Beall Barclay is Western Arkansas’ premier provider of accounting, auditing, bookkeeping and wealth management advisory services. With locations in Fort Smith and Rogers, the professionals at Beall Barclay have been committed to a holistic approach to financial success for a diverse group of clients for over 45 years.
