Local CPA Named Treasurer of Dover Public Education Foundation, Inc.

Fort Smith, AR — The local CPA and wealth management advisory firm of Beall Barclay is pleased to announce that Josh Masters, CPA, Senior Audit Manager, was recently named Treasurer of the Dover Public Education Foundation, Inc.

“The Dover Public Education Foundation, Inc. recently obtained their status as a public charity from the IRS and will be a great resource for children, parents and teachers in the years to come,” said Masters. “I am excited about this opportunity and look forward to helping enhance the programs the Foundation provides and its mission.”

The Dover Public Education Foundation, Inc. is a newly recognized 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that was formed to raise funds and provide grants to the Dover School District for various educational needs.

Masters joined Beall Barclay in 1999. As a senior manager in the firm’s accounting and auditing department, he works with a wide variety of clients, including construction contractors, heavy equipment dealerships, wholesalers, retailers and manufacturers. Masters also assists clients in the nonprofit and low income housing industries. He specializes in high risk and complex audit and attest engagements, including consolidations and business combinations, variable interest entities, high risk inventory, forecasts, and A-133 and Yellow Book compliance.

Masters graduated summa cum laude from Arkansas Tech University in 2000, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in accounting. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Western Arkansas Chapter of Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA). In addition, he is an advisory board member and treasurer for the Salvation Army in Fort Smith. Masters currently resides in Dover, Arkansas with his wife, Kara, and their two children.

Beall Barclay is Western Arkansas’ premier provider of accounting, auditing, bookkeeping and wealth management advisory services. With locations in Fort Smith and Rogers, the professionals at Beall Barclay have been committed to a holistic approach to financial success for a diverse group of clients for over 48 years.
