Local CPAs Receive Promotions

Fort Smith, AR — The local CPA and wealth management advisory firm of Beall Barclay recently announced the promotions of Amber Brady, CPA, Andrea Parker, CPA and Christopher Cluck, CPA to the position of senior accountants.

Brady, formerly an in-charge accountant, joined the firm in 2004. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in management and marketing in 1998 and her Bachelor of Science degree in business administration in 2004 from Arkansas Tech University. Brady maintains memberships in various professional organizations including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Arkansas Society of CPAs (ASCPA), the Oklahoma Society of CPAs (OSCPA) and Young Emerging Leaders of Fort Smith. She currently resides in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Parker joined Beall Barclay in 2006. Previously an in-charge accountant, she now serves as a senior accountant. Parker graduated summa cum laude from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in business administration in 2006. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Arkansas Society of CPAs (ASCPA). Parker currently resides in Bella Vista, Arkansas.

Cluck joined Beall Barclay in 2006 and previously served as an in-charge accountant. In his new role as senior accountant, he is responsible for efficiently planning, supervising and completing routine audit and non-audit engagements. Cluck received his Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from the University of Arkansas in Fort Smith in 2005. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Western Chapter of the Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA). Cluck currently resides in Greenwood, Arkansas with his wife and three children.

Beall Barclay is Western Arkansas' premier provider of accounting, auditing, bookkeeping and wealth management advisory services.
