Local Accountants Promoted to Senior Managers

Fort Smith, AR — The local CPA and wealth management advisory firm of Beall Barclay recently announced the promotions of Roxanne Benincosa, CPA, Brian Hall, CPA, Katie Lejong, CPA and Josh Masters, CPA to senior manager.

Benincosa has worked with Beall Barclay & Company for more than 8 years in various roles. As a senior manager, she specializes in providing comprehensive audits, reviews and compilations for the firm's clients. Benincosa also manages compliance and quality control within the firm. She works with a wide variety of clients in the nonprofit, governmental, manufacturing and construction industries. Benincosa graduated from Harding University with a Master of Business Administration degree in accounting. She also graduated summa cum laude from Arkansas Tech University with a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting in 1997. Benincosa is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA) and the Arkansas Tech University Accounting Club Alumni Association. She resides in Bentonville, Arkansas with her husband, Tom.

Hall joined Beall Barclay in 2005. In his role as senior manager, he is responsible for providing cost segregation studies, tax planning, research and consulting, and tax return preparation and reviews to the firm's clients. Hall graduated magna cum laude from the University of Central Arkansas, where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree with an emphasis in accounting in 1997. He is involved in several professional and community organizations, including the ASCPA, the AICPA, Fort Smith Rotary Club, Young Emerging Leaders for the Fort Smith Chamber of Commerce and Faulkner County Leadership Institute. Hall is also a member of the Beta Alpha Psi and Beta Gamma Sigma alumni associations. He currently resides in Fort Smith, Arkansas with his wife, Denise, and their children.

Lejong began her career in public accounting by joining Beall Barclay & Company in 1999. She is responsible for planning and organizing client engagements, preparing and analyzing financial statements, evaluating internal controls, mentoring department staff and maintaining close relationships with the firm's clients. Lejong is a graduate of Arkansas State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting in 1999. Her professional memberships include the AICPA, the ASCPA, the Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants (OSCPA) and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA). In addition, Lejong is an active member of Grace Community Church and is on the Steering Committee of the United Way Young Leaders Group. She currently resides in Greenwood, Arkansas with her husband, Michael, and their children.
