

3101 S. 70th Street
Fort Smith, AR 72903
www.beallbarclay.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 21, 2011

For More Information, Contact:

Amanda Garner (717) 385-8712

Local Accountants Receive Promotions

Fort Smith, AR — The local CPA and wealth management advisory firm of Beall Barclay recently announced the promotions of James D. Brashear, CPA, Chris Taylor, Michael H. Watson, CPA and David N. Wyatt, CPA.

Brashear, formerly an in-charge accountant, joined the firm in 2009. In his new role as senior accountant, he is responsible for preparing and reviewing tax returns, researching new and existing tax laws, and preparing valuation calculations and reports. In addition to receiving a promotion, he recently received his Certified Valuation Analysts (CVA) designation from the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts. Brashear received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration with a concentration in accounting in 2006 and a Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics in 2000 from Arkansas Tech University. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA), the NACVA and the Arkansas Tech Alumni Association. Brashear resides in Greenwood, Arkansas with his wife, Lora, and their children.

Taylor joined the firm in 2007. Previously a staff accountant, he now serves as an in-charge accountant in the tax department. Taylor will be assisting clients with their corporate and partnership tax returns, including low income housing partnership returns. In addition to his client responsibilities, he will be an additional resource to junior staff accountants in the tax department. Taylor also recently passed his Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam. He graduated magna cum laude from Arkansas Tech University in 2007, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. Taylor double majored in accounting and economics with a minor in Mathematics. He currently resides in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Watson joined Beall Barclay in 2010. Previously a junior accountant, he now serves as an in-charge accountant providing audit and tax services for the firm's clients. Watson primarily serves low-income housing and construction and manufacturing companies. He received his Master of Accountancy degree in 2009 from the University of Central Arkansas. In addition, Watson graduated summa cum laude from the University of Central Arkansas, where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in 2008. He is an associate member of the AICPA and the ASCPA. Watson is a current resident of Fort Smith, Arkansas with his wife, Kacie.

Wyatt joined the Beall Barclay team in 2008. As an in-charge accountant, he will be providing comprehensive tax and audit services for the firm's clients. Wyatt graduated cum laude from Arkansas Tech University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in

--Continued--

3101 S. 70th Street
Fort Smith, AR 72903
www.beallbarclay.com

business administration, economics and finance. Wyatt also received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration and accounting in 2001 from Arkansas Tech University. He is involved in several professional and community organizations, including the AICPA, United Way and First Southern Baptist Church in Central City. In addition, Wyatt is a CPE representative for the ASCPA. He currently resides in Barling, Arkansas with his wife, Kristy.

Beall Barclay is Western Arkansas' premier provider of accounting, auditing, bookkeeping and wealth management advisory services. With locations in Fort Smith and Rogers, the professionals at Beall Barclay have been committed to a holistic approach to financial success for a diverse group of clients for over 45 years.

###